

IACVS

How Does Senior Business Valuator Become an ICVS

What is a senior BV practitioner?

1. 10,000 hours or more in BV
2. Can be from
 - a. Practice –
 - i. M&A
 - ii. Estate and gift
 - iii. Divorce
 - iv. Disputes
 - v. Economic damages
 - vi. Litigation with BV issues
 - vii. Other
 - b. Teaching BV classes
 - c. Writing –
 - i. Books on BV
 - ii. Articles on BV
 - d. R&D in BV theory or methodology that are published

How to Obtain the ICVS BV credential

1. Be a Member in good standing of IACVS, and
2. Submit the documents indicated below
3. Submit two reports - one for general business valuation and one for valuation of intangible assets IA/IP. Or
4. Submit one report for general business valuation and take multiple choice exam – 150 IA/IP Qs.

What to Be Submitted to Obtain the ICVS Credential

1. Associate Membership Application and applicable dues.
2. Processing/examination fee - $US395.
3. Current CV, including details of any professional license and/or credential you currently hold
4. Documentation which supports that you meet the criteria and requirements on the Enrollment in ICVS for Senior BV Practitioners.
5. If you are submitting a valuation report, please redact sensitive/confidential information.
6. If you will be taking the on-line multiple choice examination, IACVS HQ will contact you after submission of your application and documents.