

Sung-Soo Seol, Ph.D. (Economics) s.s.seol@hnu.kr

Currently CEO of Seol & Values supporting startups, and Emeritus Professor of Hannam University, Korea after 34 years of service.

He published 121 refereed academic articles on innovation, commercialization, valuation of technology, and technology policy. He wrote 23 books including Theory of Technological Innovation (2011), Valuation of Technology (2012, 2020, 2024 forthcoming), Commercialization of Technology (2013) and etc.

In academic society, he is the Founding Honorary Chair of the Asian Society for Innovation and Policy since 2011, and also the Honorary Chairman, Korea Technology Innovation Society having about 3,000 members.

In professional society, he is the Founding Honorary Chairman Korea Valuation Association specialized in valuation of technology and tech-biz having about 4,000 certified experts. He is the Chair of Standards Committee for Valuation of Technology in Korea since 2000. He also serves as Honorary Member in the International Association of Certified Valuation Analysts. He has been developing the field of valuation of technology in Korea since the 1990s and it becomes a widely-used policy tool in S&T policy.

For government, he had served in several organizations and ministries; Policy Adviser to the Minister of Education, and S&T; a member of Planning & Budget Committee and National R&D Program Coordination Committee of the National S&T Council (NSTC); Chair, Parts/Materials Committee, National R&D Programs, NSTC; Chair of 1st Startup Fund of Funds of the Ministry of S&T, etc.

He got several awards from academics and government; Award for Development of New Area, valuation of technology, from the Korea Technology Innovation Society (2001); Award for the development of S&T information from President of Korea (2012), Award for Lifetime Academic Achievement from Hannam University (2014); The Order of Science & Technology Merit from the Government of Korea (2015).